Thanksgiving Day, November 26th

Thanksgiving Day is that very special, truly American national holiday when people’s prayers of thankfulness for all God’s blessings are gratefully remembered and raised up to Him. As a ‘pilgrim people’ and ‘church of God’, we are called to help those in need in the best ways we can. Non-perishable food items—canned, boxed, sealed, will be collected from Monday, November 22nd, to Thursday, November 26th. There will be baskets in the front of the church for you to place whatever “gift” you may be able to donate. We plan to share your generosity with families in need at All Saints School.

Thanksgiving Day Mass will be at 9 am (no 11:30 am Mass). Father will be offering a blessing over any Thanksgiving Day meal foods or beverages you bring to Mass with you.

Next Alpha Course

The Spring Alpha at St. Frances Cabrini will begin on Tuesday, January 19th and will gather each week via Zoom until Tuesday, March 30th. Each session begins promptly at 6 pm and concludes at 7:15 pm. The day-away will be Saturday, March 6th (from 10:30 am to 1 pm). You won't want to miss it! Since these are Zoom sessions, this is a great opportunity for you to invite family and friends who don't live in the Omaha area or don't have Alpha near them to take advantage of this great opportunity. ## Stewardship

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities." - MATTHEW 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

Weekly Collections November 7-8

All Saints Gift Fund	$	126.00
Organ Fund	$	74.00

Parish Events

Giving Tree 2020

The Cabrini Sodality will again be sponsoring a Giving Tree this year to help assure a Christmas for some of the children at All Saints Catholic School who otherwise wouldn't have much. Due to the circumstances with Covid and social distancing, instead of actual gift buying, they are asking for gift cards to stores like Target, Walmart, etc. for the parents to use the cards for needed items for their children. An easel with a large poster will be displayed the first weekend of Advent, November 28-29. A basket will be set out the following two weekends, December 5-6 and 12-13, to collect the gift cards. Thank you for your support of the ASCS children!

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

This week I found myself a bit uninspired to write a letter or a reflection for you. Maybe it is because of the unresolved place that the recent election left our country, maybe it is the increasing cases of Covid-19, maybe it is the falling leaves and colder days...I am not really sure of the cause, but I find myself without inspiration.

Wonderfully, we are a part of a larger Church and the Holy Spirit has been inspiring people there for a long time. Let me share with you a poem from Sr. Margaret Halaska. You may have seen it before, but it is worth reading again.

Covenant

God
knocks at my door
seeking a home for his son.
Rent is cheap, I say.
I don't want to rent. I want to buy, says God.
I'm not sure I want to sell,
but you might come in and look around.
I think I will, says God.
I might let you have a room or two.
I like it, says God. I'll take the two.
You might decide to give me more some day.
I can wait, says God.
I'd like to give you more,
but it's a bit difficult. I need some space for me.
I know, says God, but I'll wait. I like what I see.
Hm, maybe I can let you have another room.
I really don't need that much.
Thanks, says God, I'll take it. I like what I see.
I'd like to give you the whole house
but I'm not sure ...
Think on it, says God. I wouldn't put you out.
Your house would be mine and my son would live in it.
You'd have more space than you'd ever had before.
I don't understand at all.
I know, says God, but I can't tell you about that.
You'll have to discover it for yourself.
That can only happen if you let me have the whole house.
A bit risky, I say.
Yes, says God, but try me.
I'm not sure -
I'll let you know.
I can wait, says God, I like what I see.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
