Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 31, 2021

All Saints and All Souls Day

All Saints Day on November 1st is not considered a Holyday of Obligation this year since it lands on a Monday. On All Souls Day, November 2nd, we remember our deceased loved ones. There is a book in the back of church to write the names of loved ones who have passed on since November 1, 2020 to October 31, 2021. This book will be placed on the altar during the 11:30 am Mass on Tuesday, November 2nd. We will also be remembering parishioners who have died and been buried from Cabrini this past year at all the Masses this weekend and at Tuesday's Mass.

Preschool Teacher's Aide Position Available

All Saints School is looking for an individual to share God's love and kindness with small children in a classroom environment, as a preschool teacher's aide. Under the supervision of the lead teacher, this individual will mentor students in small groups or provide individualized attention either inside the regular classroom or through our pull-out program. This individual will also assist the teacher in preparing curricular materials, grading papers, tracking attendance, and helping students follow classroom rules of behavior. Hours are from 7:45-12:45. For more information, please contact Angie Whitfield at (402) 346-5757 or at awhitfield@allsaintscs.org.

Scholastic Book Fair Going on Now!

This is the last week to check out our Virtual Book Fair to stock your bookshelves and earn rewards for our school community. It ends October 31st. You can also support the classrooms by donating money to an eWallet and the classroom teachers will be able to purchase books from those funds. Please visit <https://www.scholastic.com/bf/allsaints21>

Prayer Ministry

If you would like to request prayer from our Prayer Team, for yourself or someone else, please contact Ann Lenz at amlenz@archomaha.org (402) 934-7706.

If you desire to be prayed with in-person, Prayer Ministers gather after the 11:30 am Mass the first Friday of every month to pray with and for intentions. You are always welcome!

Stewardship

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“And ‘to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself’ is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.” (MARK 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it’s more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

Pastor’s Letter

Dear Friends,

You may not be aware of it, but a historical step in the history of the church began this month. AND, Pope Francis wants you to be a part of it. Let me give you some information from the preparatory Vatican documents so you may have a better understanding about what is being done and asked. I will also pass along more information in the upcoming weeks in this space.

The Church of God is convoked in Synod. The path entitled “For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission” will solemnly open on the 9th – 10th of October 2021 in Rome and on the following 17th of October in each particular Church. One fundamental stage will be the celebration of the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, in October 2023, which will be followed by the implementation phase that will again involve the particular Churches.

With this convocation, Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: “It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium.” This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church’s “renewal” proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission. Our “journeying together” is, in fact, what most effectively enacts and manifests the nature of the Church as the pilgrim and missionary People of God.

A basic question prompts and guides us: How does this “journeying together,” which takes place today on different levels (from the local level to the universal one), allow the Church to proclaim the Gospel in accordance with the mission entrusted to Her; and what steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow as a synodal Church? Addressing this question together requires listening to the Holy Spirit, who like the wind “blows where it wills; you can hear the sound it makes, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes” (Jn 3:8), remaining open to the surprises that the Spirit will certainly prepare for us along the way. Thus, a dynamism is activated that allows us to begin to reap some of the fruits of a synodal conversion, which will progressively mature.

The Synod hopes to hear from the whole people of God in determining the future ways in which the church will live out its call from Jesus. The preparatory documents continue:

Within this context, synodality represents the main road for the Church, called to renew herself under the action of the Spirit and by listening to the Word. The ability to imagine a different future for the Church and her institutions, in keeping with the mission she has received, depends largely on the decision to initiate processes of listening, dialogue, and community discernment, in which each and every person can participate and contribute. At the same time, the decision to “journey together” is a prophetic sign for the human family, which needs a shared project capable of pursuing the good of all. A Church capable of communion and fraternity, of participation and subsidiarity, in fidelity to what she proclaims, will be able to stand beside the poor and the least and lend them her own voice. In order to “journey together,” we need to let ourselves be educated by the Spirit to a truly synodal mentality, entering with courage and freedom of heart into a conversion process that is indispensable for the “continual reformation of which [the Church] always has need, in so far as she is a human institution”.

This should be an exciting and grace-filled time for the Church. I look forward to us being in dialogue, listening, sharing and discerning together as a community.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
