Many Thanks!!

Thank you to all the people who helped last Sunday after the 11 am Mass to remove the Nativity scene and other Christmas decorations in the Church. Your help was terrific and much appreciated! Also, Thank You again for all the generous donations for poinsettias and evergreens which made the Church so beautiful!

It's Soup Night Tonight at the Cabrini Family Dinner

Come join us for our Cabrini Family Dinner this Sunday at 6 pm in the Cabrini Parish Center gym. This is a great way to get to know others in our parish family and enjoy some good food in the process. So bring a crockpot of your favorite soup and we'll have bread and oyster (soup) crackers provided. No time to make soup? We'll need some dessert too... Levi Helmuth will be giving a testimony at 7 pm. Hope to see you there!

Coffee and Conversation - Please join us Wednesdays, January 19th & 26th

As we begin this new year, please join us as we gather for "Coffee and Conversation" to discuss the book Life is Messy by Matthew Kelly. All are welcome! Why do we gather? We gather to learn and to grow by sharing ourselves with others, and by listening. As Pope Francis says, "Growth in holiness is a journey in community side by side with others." We will meet for one hour at 12 noon in the Cabrini Parish Center. Please wear a mask. We hope you can join us for one or for both sessions! (If you did not receive a book at Christmas, there are extras in the back of Church.) On January 19th, we will discuss pages 1-99. On January 26th, we will discuss pages 100-195.

Stewardship

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (1 CORINTHIANS 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

One of the truths about our country is that we are basically a nation made up of immigrants. We are proud of that reality. Most people are also proud of their heritage and desire to help the family members and country they left behind.

I remember in our group tour of Sicily a couple of years ago, when we visited the church and the school in Carlentini, Italy, we were shown the items that had been donated from the community in Omaha. The names on the memorial in the garden read like a list out of the phone book in Omaha. The folks in Carlentini were so grateful that those who had come to the United States had not forgotten the community left behind. In fact, the school in Carlentini was still seeking help from the Omaha community with the purchase of new school desks and chairs.

One of the more recent immigrant groups to Omaha are those from South Sudan. A large number of the students in All Saints School are children of immigrants from South Sudan. Many of the families have become parishioners at Cabrini. They, too, have a desire to help those who have been left behind.

A group of local Sudanese immigrants have formed a non-profit organization to help homeless children in the community of Kapoeta, South Sudan. Currently, they are providing shelter for 135 children. Their facility does not have any latrines or a water source. They are asking for our assistance to construct latrines as well as drill a well to obtain water. Their guess at the cost of both projects is $30,500. Hakim Peter, a parishioner at Cabrini, will be personally supervising the construction of the project. You can learn more about the organization at their website: <https://www.tripleorganization.com/>.

To help with this effort, the Parish Council decided to take up a second collection for them. That collection will take place next Sunday, January 23rd.

Another group of local immigrants that we are helping are those from Huehuetenango in Guatemala. You may have noticed that work has begun to form a mission team to go to Guatemala in June to help on a project in San Sebastian Coatan. In prior years, mission trips have had a school team, a medical team and a construction team. If you are interested in helping IXIM on this year's trip, please contact Charlie Petro in the parish office.

As followers of Jesus, we come to understand that we are brothers and sisters to fellow believers whether they live close to Omaha or are thousands of miles away. We cannot turn our backs on our family members who are experiencing great poverty. We need to make sure that their lives are as blessed as our lives. Thank you for your generosity to these projects.

Peace,

Fr. Damian

Grieving with Great Hope Workshop

The Grieving with Great Hope Workshop offered by Catholic Cemeteries is a path through grieving after the death of a loved one. We connect people with other people on the same path, not necessarily the same journey. There are no stages to grief on this journey, everyone experiences loss in their own way. It is with prayerful reflection, practical learning and personal fellowship we learn to continue this journey in life after the loss of a spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandchild or friend. Please come join us at St. Cecelia Cathedral's Monsignor Graham building on Tuesday evening beginning February 1st through March 8th at 6:30 pm. Space is limited so please call or email Deacon Jim Tardy, 402/391-3711 or jtardy@catholiccem.com.
