Second Collection This Weekend

There will be a second collection this weekend for the people of Ukraine who are suffering such profound loss.

Cabrini Family Dinner

Join us this Sunday evening, at 6 pm for this month's Cabrini Family Dinner at. Casseroles are the theme, so please bring a casserole or something you'd eat with them. A mandarin and lettuce salad will be provided. The speaker at 7 pm will be Alysia Radicia.

Thank You, Thank You!

I wish to express my deepest gratitude to my Cabrini Family for all the support you've given through your prayers, inquiries, sympathies, and especially your hugs as my Mother went through her final illness and passing. It was so comforting to me and I can't thank you enough! Terri Caffrey

Stewardship

Second Sunday in Lent

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession." (GENESIS 15:7) Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

We are taking up a second collection today for the people of Ukraine who are suffering such profound loss. The collection is being taken up by the United States Catholic Bishops.

One great sadness I have felt with this war is, just like the two prior world wars, that it is Christian killing Christian. Just like the Cain and Abel story, it is brother killing brother. Here it is Russian Orthodox, with their leader Putin, killing Ukrainian Orthodox and Ukrainian Catholic brothers and sisters. How horrible. What a terrible example to the world as to how Christians love one another. What a great failure to follow the teaching of Jesus.

Pope Francis had a video conference with the head of the Russian Orthodox Church on Wednesday of this week. The Russian Patriarch has been a staunch supporter of Putin's actions and he is Putin's good friend. Their remarks were communicated in a Vatican statement Wednesday evening. The video conference came after rumors had circulated that Kirill had blocked attempts by Pope Francis to speak directly to Putin.

"The Church must not use the language of politics, but the language of Jesus," the pope said, according to the Vatican statement. In what was seemingly a nod to Russian suffering as a result of the war in addition to that of Ukraine, Francis said, "Those who pay the bill for the war are the people, it is Russian soldiers and it is the people who are bombed and die."

"As pastors we have the duty to stay close and to help all the people who suffer from war," Francis said. "At one time we also spoke in our churches of holy war or just war. Today we cannot speak like that. The Christian conscience has developed on the importance of peace."

"The churches are called to contribute to strengthening peace and justice ... Wars are always unjust, because the ones who pay are the people of God," the pope said. "Our hearts cannot help but cry in front of the children, the women killed, all the victims of the war. War is never the way. The spirit that unites us asks us as pastors to help the peoples who suffer from war."

At the Pope's Wednesday audience, he prayed:

Forgive us for war, O Lord.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on us sinners!

Lord Jesus, born in the shadows of bombs falling on Kyiv, have mercy on us!

Lord Jesus, who died in a mother's arms in a bunker in Kharkiv, have mercy on us!

Lord Jesus, a 20-year-old sent to the frontlines, have mercy on us!

Lord Jesus, who still behold armed hands in the shadow of your Cross, have mercy on us!

Forgive us, O Lord.

Forgive us, if we are not satisfied with the nails with which we crucified Your hands, as we continue to slate our thirst with the blood of those mauled by weapons.

Forgive us, if these hands which You created to tend have been transformed into instruments of death.

Forgive us, O Lord, if we continue to kill our brother;

Forgive us, if we continue like Cain to pick up the stones of our fields to kill Abel.

Forgive us, if we continue to justify our cruelty with our labors, if we legitimize the brutality of our actions with our pain.

Forgive us for war, O Lord. Forgive us for war, O Lord.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, we implore You! Hold fast the hand of Cain!

Illumine our consciences;

May our will not be done;

Abandon us not to our own actions!

Stop us, O Lord, stop us!

And when you have held back the hand of Cain, care also for him. He is our brother.

O Lord, put a halt to the violence!

Stop us, O Lord!

Amen.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
