Alpha

Fall Alpha for All Ages is accepting registrations now. Others who have gone through Alpha often express they wish they'd had something like this sooner. Here is your chance! Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the meaning of life and the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly, open, informal environment. It is for everyone! There is no judging, preaching, teaching or giving advice! You can't know what it is like until you've experienced it! Alpha can help you define or strengthen your faith, build community and form friendships. It's life-changing! The weekly topics are designed to encourage conversation. Are you, or do you know of someone who is looking for a place to gather with others to talk about the big questions in life—Is there a God? Who is Jesus? What about the Holy Spirit?, etc. Maybe God is an unknown? Maybe new friendships are what is sought? Maybe just gathering with others with similar beliefs? Maybe you just don't feel like preparing a meal... Fall Alpha is ready for you! It begins Tuesdays at the Cabrini Parish Center gym from 6-8 pm September 5th, and runs through November 14th, with a retreat day on October 21st. It's free. It includes a full meal (we do accept free-will donations to help cover food costs). For questions or to register, contact Deacon Doug Lenz at dalenz@archomaha.org or Ann Lenz at amlenz@archomaha.org

International Healing Ministry Presents A Powerful Healing Service

Alan Ames is an internationally known evangelist and visionary from Austria who has been given the gift of healing. For the past 23 years, Alan has traveled extensively to countries throughout the world, giving witness to his conversion from a man of sin to one who has an intimate relationship with God and the Roman Catholic Church. There have been many documented and reported miracles and cures, both physical and spiritual. The healing services will begin with a Mass at 7 pm, followed by his talk and concluding with a healing service. Alan will pray over each individual who attends the healing services. Attendees may wish to bring photos of those they are praying for. Confessions will be offered following the Mass. Alan Ames will be in the Omaha area 4 nights July 17-20, 2023.

Legacy Planning

Plan for your future like you plan for your vacation. Your travel itinerary is the plan that helps you reach your destination. Your estate plan can accomplish the same thing. You can use your estate plan to provide for family and support the causes you care about, like the mission of the Church in northeast Nebraska. To help your will and estate plan reflect your desires, to obtain a free legacy-planning guide, or to view some helpful videos on planned giving, visit archomahalegacy.org

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

One of the more amusing passages from the New Testament is in the twelfth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. King Herod was persecuting Christians and had Peter put in prison. The night before his trial, God sends an angel to free Peter. He was sleeping between two soldiers and other guards were outside the cell. He was also chained. The chains fell from his wrists and the angel told him to get dressed and follow him. Peter initially thought it was a dream until he passed through all the guards and out the front gate of the prison. When Peter realized that he was free he scurried to the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where a group of Christians had gathered in prayer. There he pounds on the outer courtyard door until a maid by the name of Rhoda came to answer. She does not open the door but speaks to Peter through the door and recognizes his voice. She can hardly believe what she is hearing. Instead of opening the door, she runs back to tell the others, leaving Peter standing outside. When she tells the others, they think she is out of her mind because Peter is in prison. She insists and they decide the visitor might be Peter's angel. Peter, meanwhile, being his impetuous self, continues to pound on the door. The men finally come and look out the door. They let him in with great rejoicing but Peter motions to them to be quiet and tells them what had happened. Since they had made such a ruckus, Peter decides to go and stay somewhere else to avoid being arrested again. It is easy to imagine the scene and Peter's wonderment throughout.

Early Christians gathered in homes to worship, like the one Peter went to that night. One had to knock and be recognized as a fellow Christian to be allowed inside. It took many centuries before Christians could worship openly and freely. When we gather at Cabrini we no longer have to knock on the door to receive permission to enter. We do not have to worry about being arrested because of what we believe. Hopefully, you know that Cabrini is your home. You belong to the family of God. You enter Cabrini freely as you come and spend time with God and with the family of fellow believers. People have prayed within these walls for one hundred and fifteen years.

We do not live in a country where we have to fear being arrested like Peter for simply confessing that Jesus is Lord. However, we may have to endure ridicule and exclusion for being Catholic. You do not have to look far on social media to find a comedian ridiculing our practices and beliefs. This is one of the reasons we need a supportive community to help us on our faith journey.

One of the charisms of the Cabrini community is our wonderful sense of hospitality. I watch it Sunday after Sunday. While respecting others who are praying, you readily offer a quiet greeting, a handshake, a nod, a smile, an embrace or a kiss. You make others feel like family whether it is the first time they have visited or if they have been coming for years. Here we are all brothers and sisters, children of the one God. No one is ever a complete stranger. If you did not have a chance to meet the newcomer on the way into church, many of you seek them out after the Mass has ended.

Years ago, Malcolm Muggeridge, a British journalist wrote one of the first books about Mother Teresa of Calcutta. The book was entitled Something Beautiful for God. Mother had described her ministry as an attempt to "do something beautiful for God." And she succeeded. By being responsive to God's grace and love and by reflecting that love back to others, Mother Teresa became one of the most beautiful people in the world. She knew the truth that she was the place where God dwelt.

That is the ministry of each one of us as we welcome people to our family at Frances Cabrini, to reflect the love of God to them, to let them know they are loved, to be something beautiful for God.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
