Mission Co-op Weekend

This weekend, July 22-23, we will have a missionary priest presiding at all the Masses. Columban Fr. Kwang-kyu Ji (Peter) was ordained in 2016 and worked in South Korea and Ireland. He has been in the Philippines since 2018. Father has been living and working in Manila doing parish and formation work. Following the completion of a course in religious formation at the Catholic Theological Union, Fr. Kwang-kyu will return to the Philippines in July 2024. The Missionary Society of St. Columban, also known as the Columban Fathers, is a Catholic missionary society that was founded in 1918 to proclaim and witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ. The Columbans minister in fourteen different countries, mainly in Asia and around the Pacific Rim. They spread the message of Christ in word and deed through education, spiritual formation, and service to the disabled. The Society seeks to establish the Catholic Church where the Gospel has not been preached. Their U.S. headquarters are based in Bellevue, NE. To learn more about the Columban Fathers, please visit their website www.columban.org

Alpha

Fall Alpha for All Ages is accepting registrations now. Others who have gone through Alpha often express they wish they'd had something like this sooner. Here is your chance! Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the meaning of life and the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly, open, informal environment. It is for everyone! There is no judging, preaching, teaching or giving advice! You can't know what it is like until you've experienced it! Alpha can help you define or strengthen your faith, build community and form friendships. It's life-changing! The weekly topics are designed to encourage conversation. Are you, or do you know of someone who is looking for a place to gather with others to talk about the big questions in life—Is there a God? Who is Jesus? What about the Holy Spirit?, etc. Maybe God is an unknown? Maybe new friendships are what is sought? Maybe just gathering with others with similar beliefs? Maybe you just don't feel like preparing a meal... Fall Alpha is ready for you! It begins Tuesdays at the Cabrini Parish Center gym from 6-8 pm September 5th, and runs through November 14th, with a retreat day on October 21st. It's free. It includes a full meal (we do accept free-will donations to help cover food costs). For questions or to register, contact Deacon Doug Lenz at dalenz@archomaha.org or Ann Lenz at amlenz@archomaha.org

Retrouvaille—A Lifeline for Marriage

Rediscover Your Marriage – Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) simply means 'rediscovery'. This program offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse, and a loving relationship in your marriage. Retrouvaille is a not spiritual retreat, not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, not a social gathering. You Can Help Your Marriage – Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue ... or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrouvaille helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. For confidential information about or to register for the August program beginning with a weekend on August 11-13, call 1 (800) 470-2230 or visit HelpOurMarriage.com.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

This weekend, we have our yearly Mission Co-Op preacher. As we mentioned last week, Fr. Kwangkyu, a Columban Missionary, will be presiding and preaching at all the Masses. He is from Korea and has been doing mission work in the Philippines. I hope you have a chance to chat with him over the weekend.

While I've never left our country to do ministry, my years at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish certainly felt like being a missionary in a foreign land. I had to work in a language that was not my own in a culture that was very different from the one I knew growing up. While the work was always challenging, I learned a lot of things about myself, our culture and the invitation of Jesus.

You and I are regularly reminded that we have all been called to be missionary disciples. This work is not just for Fr. Kwangkyu but for you and me. Jesus sent out his disciples to proclaim Good News and so he sends you out to proclaim Good News. Perhaps it would be helpful if I share with you some things I learned about Jesus' call to mission during my years at Guadalupe.

First, it may not be immediately obvious how being sent by Jesus is freeing but it is. Consider that when we know we are called to do something by someone in authority, we are often more courageous and diligent in doing it, even if it is hard. For example, if the boss, the mayor, the governor... asks us to do something and we are acting in his/her name, it is easier to do. When Jesus asks... even when people react poorly, we need not be discouraged for we know that we are under the orders of God. As St. Paul tells us, we are ambassadors, ambassadors for Christ.

Second, Jesus encouraged his followers to go and preach without baggage, without stuff. You and I have lots of stuff, and stuff needs attention, maintenance, and money; it takes up space and ties us down. We also have the baggage and clutter of too many commitments. We're overscheduled and overbooked. We have many disordered priorities such that we spend too much time worrying about things that don't matter all that much in the end, and what does matter gets put on hold. Real freedom can come with simplicity of life and focus. Missionary discipleship reminds us that we are just passing through in this world. This is not our home. We are simply stopping here on our way to heaven. God has much better "stuff" waiting for us there. Frankly, God has much better "stuff" for us even in this life if we but live with right priorities.

Third, Jesus warned his disciples that not everyone will be open to hearing the Good News. One of the greatest freedoms of all is the gift to be free of our obsession with being liked, approved of, and popular. This is not an invitation to be impolite or to fail to make ourselves presentable. Rather, it is an invitation to be free of our obsession with popularity so that we can shake off the rejection of the gospel that we will inevitably experience. Jesus invites us into the only relationship that really matters, the relationship with God. Out of that relationship, all other relationships will grow and flourish.

Last of all, the message we bring is not about us. The message is from and about Jesus. We are simply repeating what Jesus taught. Simply be his loving presence in the world and the Spirit will do the rest. Pope Francis often speaks about the ministry of accompaniment. Are you able to walk with someone, eat with someone, or sit with someone? That is all it takes. You do not have to be a great scholar. Just by being a loving presence you can help another person know in some small way the God who loves them.

Being a missionary disciple sets us spiritually free. More than that, it breaks our hearts open so God can come in.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
