October Rosary Rally

October is the month of the rosary. The Archdiocese of Omaha Vocations Office is reaching out to ask for help in an exciting initiative next month. The Vocations Office is leading an archdiocese-wide rosary rally for vocations in October and seeking to pray 50,000 rosaries to encourage our young men and women discerning priesthood and religious life. These young adults are in a spiritual battle and are trying to discern where God’s calling them in an increasingly faithless culture filled with constant distraction. They need our prayers. This isn’t a single event. Rather the rally is a month-long campaign allowing Catholics to come together in person and online to ask our Blessed Mother’s intercession in our united effort to foster vocations. We need your help for this October Rosary Rally to be successful. Here at St. Frances Cabrini, we will be praying the rosary in Church at 4:30 pm each Saturday and at 8:20 am each Sunday during October. Come early to Mass and join us. Consider praying the rosary at home, singly or as a couple or family... Consider adding the rosary to your October Community Group gathering... Consider a Zoom event to pray the rosary together... Spread the word! Pray the rosary in October, then call the Cabrini Parish Center Office (402) 934-7706 and let us know how many you’ve prayed. We will report them all to the Vocations Office from our parish community. We have many young people in our archdiocese who need the shielding power of prayer as they strengthen their relationship with Jesus. Your efforts will make a difference for them.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

I am joining about 50 of our fellow parishioners on the parish retreat with Fr. Andy Alexander at the Creighton Retreat Center this weekend. In a sense, it is completing the annual priest retreat I was doing last week at the same location. I am delighted that we are doing this as a parish, and I am also delighted that so many of you are now doing regular retreats at The Cloisters Retreat Center. How important it is for us to find moments of alone-time with God and to have extended periods of prayer time with God. Retreats help us to deepen our everyday relationship with God, kind of like going on a little vacation with the ones you love, time away to renew hearts and to see life anew.

This world of ours, as is so often noted, has become a noisier and less friendly place. It is a place that more resembles the place where the Church was born in the days after Jesus ascended into heaven. Like the early Church when things were challenging, they went to be with God in prayer. They were simply doing what Jesus did and what he had taught them to do

Scripture teaches us that human beings need to be reminded to focus on God, to tell the stories again and again, to know that the God who was active in the past is still active and will continue to be active in your life. In the Book of Deuteronomy, we are taught: Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

For too many Christians, prayer becomes simply a matter of asking God for things. They do not talk to God unless things have gotten bad, someone is ill, some crisis has happened at work or in the world. But worship and prayer are not magic, they do not summon God. Worship and prayer are the way we find a connection with God. Prayer moves us, prayer changes us, prayer connects us with the Divine. The only way for that to happen is to take the time and place ourselves in the presence of the Divine. The hardest part about praying is showing up. And that is a nonnegotiable when it comes to prayer, we have to show up. Retreats help us develop a pattern of prayer that we can bring back with us when we come home. They also attune us to how God acts and speaks so that when we are back in the day to day demands of life, we find it easier to notice God working in our midst. Experiencing a confession of love, reaching for a friend, witnessing a beautiful sunset – they may all connect us with God but, we can never control them. We simply have to be ready.

Peace,

Fr. Damian

Ps. Please take a moment this week to go online and sign up for a photo session for our new parish photo directory. It will only take a few moments to get registered for a timeslot. Thanks for doing that!

Archbishop's Annual Appeal

The 2023 Archbishop's Annual Appeal is beginning in our parish and across the archdiocese. The Annual Appeal supports the parishes, schools and ministries in our archdiocese. As we prepare to enter into the season of giving, please prayerfully discern what gift you are going to provide this year. Our parish contribution goal is $44,945.67 and participation goal is 38%. Together with the help of the Holy Spirit, we will create a culture of unity, evangelization, leadership and mercy.
