Lenten Bible Study – The Book of Job

The Book of Job has to do with the most painful and unavoidable questions that can arise in human experience. These questions arise in connection with experiences of arbitrary suffering. Those that suffer begin to suspect that the narrative that held together their life and their faith have been fabricated to hide ourselves from the reality of life. The Book of Job has always had a universal appeal because of its willingness to tackle the issues of suffering, morality, and concepts of God. It is designed to provoke an internal discussion in the reader as to their own beliefs and come to some peace with suffering. The Book of Job has always been difficult to translate and modern scholars are well aware that sometimes just the simplest change in a word can make all the difference in the world. Join us this Lent as we explore this important book of the Bible: The Book of Job – The Great Human Struggle, Making Sense of Suffering.

Wednesdays at 7 pm in-person in the Parish Center or via Zoom (register with Deacon Doug to get a Zoom link).

February 21st - Introduction and Prologue, Chapters 1-2 – A Dialogue of Heaven and Earth.

February 28th - The First Cycle of Attempted Understanding, Chapters 3-14 – Friends with Answers.

March 6th - The Second and Third Cycles of Attempts, Chapters 15-27 – Suffering in the Moral Universe.

March 13th - Conclusion, Chapters 28-42 – The Voice of God and Job’s Response.

Prayer/Love Does Ministry

What is Prayer/Love Does Ministry? Scripture tells us, “Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God” (Philippians 4:6). Prayer Ministry is our response to this call, loving our fellow parishioners by remembering them in prayer.

Who can join? This ministry is for anyone and everyone who feels called to serve fellow parishioners by praying for their intentions, whatever they might be.

How does it work? To request prayers, simply contact our parish office at (402) 934-7706. The Prayer Ministry/Love Does team will then be contacted with the specific intention. We will also pray for these intentions at our daily Masses. As part of the Prayer Ministry team, Deacon Doug or Ann Lenz will email out each prayer request as they come in. Your role is to open the email and take a moment to lift up the person or intention in prayer. If the Spirit nudges you to do something more (a note, a treat, a meal, whatever), great! If not, great! That’s totally between you and God. The most important piece... Prayer!

How do I sign up? If you need prayer, or if you feel called to serve in this ministry, please contact Deacon Doug Lenz at dalenz@archomaha.org or Ann Lenz at amlenz@archomaha.org.

Pastor’s Letter

Dear Friends,

For the past couple of months, you have heard testimony from many of your fellow parishioners about their experience as a member of a Cabrini Community. I trust you’ve enjoyed the variety of stories that were shared within the common framework of a Cabrini Community. We are now coming up against the relaunch deadline.

You have one last week to think and pray about either creating or joining a Community. I want to make sure that you have felt invited. If you want help forming a Community or want to be in a Community, just let us know.

As you have heard me say before, our endeavor with Cabrini Communities puts us on a cutting edge of where Catholic parishes are headed. Others are looking to us to see how it goes and if participation in a Community yields the goal of deeper discipleship – a better prayer life, living more like Jesus, and greater friendships with other disciples. When people ask for my evaluation of how it is going, I can only say that it truly has been a Spirit blessed endeavor – better than I ever expected. You’ve heard the witnesses at Masses the past two months.

I had known the power of small faith communities. I had seen how powerfully the short-term approach had worked in Renew and on a CEC and at Alpha and at prior parishes. I knew how important my priest support group had been to me during these 40+ years of priesthood. I had read about how the Church had been dramatically reborn in Latin America through comunidades de base. I just wasn’t sure how ongoing groups would work at a parish level. We were stepping into the unknown and had to trust the Holy Spirit. Now, I would say that they are possible, effective and beautiful at the parish level. Other parishes are learning from us. Jesus gave me a commission right before he ascended into heaven. It has been my guide throughout my priesthood. It is the commission given to all who have chosen to follow Jesus. So, it is a commission given to you as well: “Go, and make disciples.”

How we fulfill that commission is up to each one of us. Jesus did not set quotas. There is no contest to see who gets the most disciples made in the shortest time. No quality standards have been set. But the first disciple we make is the hardest one – that is our self. It’s pretty hard to make another if we are not doing what Jesus taught us to do. Jesus understood that what he was asking was a challenge which is why he formed a Church and why he sent out the disciples in pairs. Being a disciple is much easier when we are working on it with others. It’s also a lot more fun. That is what our Cabrini Communities are doing in magnificent ways. People are growing in their discipleship and, with the support of others, are finding it’s not as hard as when they were trying to do it alone. What was a challenge has become a joy.

For this next season with Cabrini Communities, we will be using a book in addition to the videos to help us in our understanding. The next season will focus on our prayer life with God. I really enjoyed the book we will be using. It is by Tyler Staton and is titled Praying Like Monks, Living Like Fools. Tyler does a terrific job of taking very traditional Catholic teaching on prayer and making it fresh for today’s Christian. He also presents it in such a way that you really do want to pray. You will truly look forward to your next experience of encountering God. I’m sure you will enjoy it as much as I did. And, when this season of Cabrini Communities is over, we will all be better friends with Jesus and as a result better disciples.

Peace,

Fr. Damian

Omaha Catholic Men’s Slowpitch League Softball Teams Are Now Forming for 2024

The softball league formed in the early 1960’s and continues today (CMSPL www.cmsplsoftball.com). It’s considered a “30 & Over” league, but teams are allowed to have a limited number of under age 30 players to support league development. Teams are made up of men typically in their 30 & 40’s with several in their 50’s playing and coaching the team. They are fathers, sons, friends and parishioners of the church being represented. It’s around a 13-week season with games played at 4:30 and 5:30 pm Sunday afternoons beginning in April, at either Seymour Smith or Kelly Softball Complexes with a year-end league tournament early August. As the league is associated with UBA, there are fees associated in participating. Current league team members come out year after year as the camaraderie and lasting friendships are formed across the Omaha Catholic Community. If your church is interested in forming a team or if there are questions regarding the league, please contact Doug Ziska at dougzis@yahoo.com
