Pastor's Letter

Happy Easter, My Friends!

Pope Francis wrote a letter to young people a couple months ago and I thought part of his letter would be a good reflection for this Easter day:

The same Christ who, by his cross, saved us from our sins, today continues to save and redeem us by the power of his total self-surrender. Look to his cross, cling to him... We can do any number of things against him, yet he loves us and he saves us. For only what is loved can be saved. Only what is embraced can be transformed. The Lord's love is greater than all our problems, frailties and flaws. Yet it is precisely through our problems, frailties and flaws that he wants to write this love story. He embraced the prodigal son, he embraced Peter after his denials, and he always, always, always embraces us after every fall, helping us to rise and get back on our feet. Because the worst fall, and pay attention to this, the worst fall, the one that can ruin our lives, is when we stay down and do not allow ourselves to be helped up.

His forgiveness and salvation are not something we can buy, or that we have to acquire by our own works or efforts. He forgives us and sets us free without cost. His self-sacrifice on the cross is so great that we can never repay it, but only receive it with immense gratitude and with the joy of being more greatly loved than we could ever imagine: "He loved us first".

Young people, beloved of the Lord, how valuable must you be if you were redeemed by the precious blood of Christ! Dear young people, you are priceless! You are not up for sale! Please, do not let yourselves be bought... Christ is alive!

Alive, he can be present in your life at every moment, to fill it with light and to take away all sorrow and solitude. Even if all others depart, he will remain, as he promised: "I am with you always, to the end of the age". Christ fills your life with his unseen presence; wherever you go, he will be waiting there for you.

Because he did not only come in the past, but he comes to you today and every day, inviting you to set out towards ever new horizons.

Rejoice with Jesus as with a friend who has triumphed. They killed him, the holy one, the just one, the innocent one, but he triumphed in the end. Evil does not have the last word. Nor will it have the last word in your life, for you have a friend who loves you and wants to triumph in you. Your Savior lives. Because Jesus lives, there can be no doubt that goodness will have the upper hand in your life and that all our struggles will prove worthwhile. If this is the case, we can stop complaining and look to the future, for with him this is always possible. That is the certainty we have. Jesus is eternally alive. If we hold fast to him, we will have life, and be protected from the threats of death and violence that may assail us in life... Saint Paul says that he wishes to be one with Christ in order "to know him and the power of his resurrection". That power will constantly be revealed in your lives too, for Jesus came to give you life, and life in abundance.

May you enjoy the abundant life Jesus brings today and throughout your life. Happy Easter!

Fr. Damian
