Omaha Welcomes the Stranger (OWS)

OWS is a volunteer-staffed non-profit 501(c)(3) organization with a mission of assisting asylum seeking immigrants (typically families) newly arrived in Omaha. To promote community among immigrant families and to introduce them to caring people in the area, they (OWS) are reaching out for hosts to bring supper to the shelter on Sunday evenings – serving approximately 20 adults and 20 children. What does this have to do with St. Frances Cabrini Parish? We’re hoping, as a parish family, we can provide and enjoy a meal with these OWS guests. Might you be interested in being a part of this, helping in whatever way you can? If so, please contact Cathy Beeler at cmbeeler@archomaha.org. Thank you. Fall Alpha for All Ages Begins September 17th!

Others who have gone through Alpha often express they wish they’d had something like this sooner. Here is your chance! Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the meaning of life and the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly, open, informal environment. It is for everyone! There is no judging, preaching, teaching or giving advice! You can’t know what it is like until you’ve experienced it! Alpha can help you define or strengthen your faith, build community and form friendships. It’s life-changing! The weekly topics are designed to encourage conversation. Are you, or do you know of someone who is looking for a place to gather with others to talk about the big questions in life—Is there a God? Who is Jesus? What about the Holy Spirit?, Why am I here? etc. Maybe God is an unknown? Maybe new friendships are what is sought? Maybe just gathering with others with similar beliefs? Maybe you just don’t feel like preparing a meal... Fall Alpha is ready for you! It runs Tuesdays at the Cabrini Parish Center gym from 6-8 pm, September 17th through November 26th, with a retreat day on November 2nd. It’s free. It includes a full meal (we do accept free-will donations to help cover food costs). For questions or to register, contact Annie Wise at amwise@archomaha.org. Registration forms can also be found at the back of Church and can be added to the offertory collection baskets or sent/brought to the Cabrini Parish Center.

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

A quick update on the new "rectory". The condo has been repainted and some furniture has been moved in to it. Since we are having to replace many items or wait until the Paul Davis Company has finished cleaning them, it is a place in transition. We have another six weeks on the lease agreement for the condo I am living in now, so I do not have to be in the new place until it is almost ready. I will have an open house in September so that you can see where Cabrini is providing a place for its clergy to live. I think you will like its uniqueness and the sense of history with this neighborhood.

In today's gospel, Jesus sends out the Twelve to proclaim the gospel – to practice what they will do after the resurrection. Jesus was a great disciple maker because he taught his disciples how to make other disciples. When Jesus was with his disciples he always kept the end goal in mind. He wanted disciples who after hearing his teaching were changed from the inside out. Once they had matured a little bit, he sends them out to teach others. As you have heard me say before, it is a bit like the old teaching method for surgeons – watch one, do one, teach one. In CEC (the Christians Encounter Christ movement) we teach "make a friend, be a friend, bring your friend to Christ".

Perhaps the Twelve were hesitant to go out and do what Jesus was doing. Maybe they thought they were not ready. Maybe they wanted to learn a bit more before they put what Jesus was teaching into practice, but the best way to learn the message of Jesus was to live the message and offer it to others. Jesus knew this.

Have you felt sent out by Jesus? You are. Have you shared your faith in Jesus with your friends and coworkers? I know, the first time is a bit scary. So, it is important to remember three things with those first few times you try to talk to others about your own belief in the gospel. First, God is the one who is working – not you. Second, you are simply a tool in God's hands. As Mother Teresa famously said, "I'm like a little pencil in His hand. That's all. He does the thinking. He does the writing. The pencil has nothing to do with it. The pencil has only to be allowed to be used." And third, the person you are talking with is the one who is responding to God's message not yours.

Our job is to pray that God will act through us and then to watch for God to do so. God is always drawing people and we simply get to be there when the transformation takes place. It is a temptation from the evil one that tells us we are not good enough to share the gospel or that we do not know enough yet or that we need to be able to answer deep theological questions before we even begin to share the gospel or tell others we really love Jesus and what he taught. If you fall for that temptation, you will never be ready.

I love to watch what coaches do with their new players, how they get them ready to play. So much of what great coaches do with players is about the relationship between them and the players. They are a great example to us on how to introduce people to the good news and then begin forming them to be disciples of Jesus. Now it is your turn, as it was for the disciples, to give it a try.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
