St. Philomena Statue

You may have noticed that the parish’s statue of St. Philomena is not in the glass case near the entry to the church. The statue is being repaired and repainted. Several of the statue’s fingers were damaged as well as some other minor damage. There is a local group in the Archdiocese that is beginning a Sunday devotion to St. Philomena and they wanted to get the statue repaired. Preliminary costs to repair the statue appear to be around $2,000. If anyone would like to help them with repair costs, you can drop an envelope in the collection with St. Philomena restoration on it or drop it in the mail to the office. They would appreciate any help you can give.

Fall Alpha for All Ages Begins This Tuesday!

It’s the very best way to get to know others in our parish! Form new friendships, whether you are a Cabrini parishioner or neighbor, or not. Skip the meal making and clean-up on Tuesday nights and come enjoy yourself! Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the meaning of life and the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly, open, informal environment. It is for everyone! Some comments from past Alpha courses: “I wanted to learn more about faith and gained community and family”, “refreshing to openly talk about faith with people—I loved it”, “I see that many people are like me—looking for more”, “loved small group discussions and conversations at dinner” and “food is excellent”. Do you want to talk about the big questions in life—Is there a God? Who is Jesus? What about the Holy Spirit?, etc. Maybe God is an unknown? Fall Alpha is ready for you! Fall Alpha is open to all ages. It runs Tuesdays in the Cabrini Parish Center gym from 6 - 8 pm, September 17th through November 26th, with a retreat day on November 2nd. It’s free. 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." MARK 8:34
Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. "Taking up my cross" means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it's convenient for me.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

I am not a big follower of Britain's royal family though I must admit I did enjoy watching The Crown on Netflix. As I approach seventy years of life, I have to acknowledge that I lived through most of those same historical events which were portrayed in The Crown and it brought back memories. The series continually presented a fascinating portrait of what it means to be a public person and the role that must be played if you accept the crown. The Queen was not always happy with the role but she accepted it as part of the responsibility of being in the royal family.

The video message of the Princess of Wales to the people of Britain this week I thought did a good job of being humble and teaching people what really matters in life. Back in March the Princess of Wales announced that she was undergoing preventative chemotherapy. The recent video message shared how difficult the journey has been not only for the princess, but her family, too:

"The last nine months have been incredibly tough for us as a family. Life as you know it can change in an instant and we have had to find a way to navigate the stormy waters and road unknown."

Yet, the message also pointed out how her medical diagnosis made her focus on the essentials in life:

"With humility, it also brings you face to face with your own vulnerabilities in a way you have never considered before, and with that, a new perspective on everything. This time has above all reminded William and me to reflect and be grateful for the simple yet important things in life, which so many of us often take for granted. Of simply loving and being loved."

The video shows the love between the prince and princess, and their children. It is heartwarming and shows that their happiness stems from being together as a family. And that is of much greater value than any jewel or crown they get to wear.

Catherine thanks all her well-wishers in the video for their "kindness, empathy and compassion," which she says is very humbling. She also offered her continued support to all those suffering with cancer. "To all those who are continuing their own cancer journey – I remain with you, side by side, hand in hand."

Her message ends with powerful words that seem inspired straight from the Bible. Advice that can apply to anyone facing any difficulties in life: "Out of darkness, can come light so let that light shine bright."

Like the future Queen of England, all those who are facing serious illness can be a reminder to all of us to focus on the things in life that really matter and to trust our journey to the God who made us. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the princess, as well as all those who are battling cancer.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
