Taize (Ty-zay) is a contemplative prayer form that began in 1940 in France with an ecumenical community of religious brothers. It consists of meditative music, readings, and periods of silence. Second Collection This Weekend

A second collection will be taken for World Mission Sunday at the Masses this weekend.

It’s Spaghetti Dinner Sunday!!!

Our Fall Spaghetti Dinner is this Sunday! Spread the word to family, friends and neighbors to plan to come eat at our dinner. Adult Dinners will be $15 each, child’s portion will be $7, a quart of sauce $5. Meatballs are remaining at $1 each. If you didn’t get signed up to work, just show up and we’ll find a place for you. It takes us all to have a successful dinner!

October Rosary Rally for Vocations

The Vocations Office is again leading an archdiocese-wide rosary rally for vocations in October and seeking to pray 75,000 rosaries to encourage our young men and women discerning priesthood and religious life. These young adults are in a spiritual battle and are trying to discern where God’s calling them in an increasingly faithless culture filled with constant distraction. They need our prayers. This isn’t a single event. Rather the rally is a month-long campaign. We need your help for this October Rosary Rally to be successful. Become a prayer warrior and pray the rosary in October, then log it on Omahavocations.org. Consider praying a rosary at your October Cabrini Community meeting and logging the total rosaries prayed.

2025 Mass Intention Forms

The 2025 Mass Intention Forms have been placed in the back of church and may be completed and returned to the Cabrini Parish Center (mailed in, delivered personally, or placed in an envelope marked “Mass Intentions” and put in the weekend collection basket). We would appreciate initial forms for the year be turned in by December 15, 2024. These forms may also be filled out and turned in at anytime during the year.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (MARK 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

As I write this letter, the election is two weeks away. Many of you are already voting by mail. When it comes to some of the ballot initiatives in the state of Nebraska, the Nebraska Catholic Conference has taken a clear stand and encourages you to thoroughly pray through and think through your decision before voting. Bulletin inserts will help you in better understanding those positions.

However, when it comes to guiding you in making decisions about which candidates to vote for, the choices are much more difficult. There are many strong and even hateful things said by the candidates and their supporters. Even within the parties there are strong differences. It is clear that we are a divided land. However, this is not new, and I do not think it should be a reason for the grave concern that we hear in the rhetoric on social media. Fear has always been a tool of the evil one which is why Jesus says over and over again, "Do not be afraid." Our trust is not in human beings but in our God. That reminder is on every dollar bill.

To those who would canonize any political leader, or who would see him or her as "God's choice," please, beware. Some people can become inordinately devoted to a candidate, so much so that they seem to believe that she or he can usher in the Kingdom of God! Every leader is flawed, some more deeply than others. That a candidate is right on certain important issues does not mean that we should be unquestioning of his or her views on others. Pope Francis recently commented that neither of our presidential candidates was perfect and people would have to decide between them. Neither is completely pro-life. No party perfectly reflects Catholic teaching; Catholics in both parties have many reasons to challenge their candidates and the parties with which they are affiliated.

Obviously, we live in a secular society. Personally, I think it has always been that way in the United States, even though people talk about this idea that we once were a "Christian" nation. I love studying history, and I cannot find a time when, as a nation, we acted as a "Christian" nation.

The scriptural stance from St. Paul regarding our leaders is clear: "First of all, then, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth" (1 Tim 2:1-4). Remember, when St. Paul wrote this, Nero was Caesar!

Perhaps it is good during elections to remember the introduction of the U.S. Constitution: "We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America." There is nothing in the original Constitution about religion. It is in the First Amendment to the Constitution that we read: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances." The "Bill of Rights" was added to limit the power of government.

May I suggest that each of you join me in praying a bit more this next month. Pray to God for our country and for our leaders. Pray to God for our state and for our city. Pray that those elected serve well and lead us closer to those founding principles. Pray that God would open our hearts to devote more attention to the things and people closer to home, to tend more the vineyard of our own soul. May God help us to see the things that we can actually change. The problems and sins of the world are not isolated to Washington; they exist in our own souls too. May we focus more on our own families and communities and seek to improve them.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
