Cabrini Care Meals

Want to support expecting parents but not sure how? Cabrini’s Young Families Fellowship is organizing meal trains for families welcoming a new baby. Volunteers sign up to deliver meals on scheduled days, with dietary restrictions provided in advance. To join the email list for future meal trains—or to request meals as an expecting family - please contact Nicole Bourne at ndbourne23@gmail.com.

St. Patrick’s in Gretna Fundraiser

This year’s Fr. Ssonko Fundraiser—Invest in Hope: Educate Youth for Brighter Tomorrows—is on Friday, July 11, at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Gretna (508 W. Angus Street). This unique raise the paddle fundraiser raises money to support their sister parish, St. Mary’s in Busaabala, Uganda. Last year, they had an outstanding response to raise funds to build a dormitory for the students of St. Mary’s Primary School. This year they will be raising funds to support the students of the school—particularly in paying for room and board expenses, uniforms for students who can’t afford them, school supplies, and the like. Visit their parish website, <https://stpatriksgretna.org/father-ssonko-fundraiser/> or stop in the St. Patrick Parish Office to get your tickets. If you are unable to attend, you may still provide a donation through the website. The Stella Matutina O’Connor Foundation is offering a $30,000 matching fund this year.

Experience Making a Difference!

Are you retired or finished raising your family? Do you want to give back, enrich your spiritual life, and build community with other mature adults? Consider joining the Ignatian Volunteer Corps in Omaha. At IVC we believe that the life experience, wisdom, and skills of older men and women can transform the world through justice, rooted in Gospel values. Seven Sisters Apostolate

Do you desire to pray intentionally for your parish priest? The Seven Sisters Apostolate form groups of 7 women, each dedicated to pray one Holy Hour a week for a priest so that there is intentional prayer for the priest each and every day. We are looking for more members for our Seven Sisters group for Father Damian. If you are interested in joining the group, please reach out to Diana at dianaabritop@gmail.com with any questions. You can also look up more information about the apostolate at <https://sevensistersapostolate.org>.

Cabrini/Mary Magdalene Young Families Fellowship

When parents are supported, families flourish. However, our world today makes meaningful connections hard to find and form. That’s why we are introducing a fellowship for families of young children to create opportunities to walk through spirit-led parenting together. Come as you are as often or as little as makes sense for your family.

Eucharistic Adoration for Little Ones & Their Families – Join us for a special time of prayer and community designed for young children and their families. We’ll gather on Saturday, July 19 at 10 am at St. Frances Cabrini for 30 minutes of Eucharistic Adoration. After Adoration, come enjoy coffee and fellowship across the street in the Parish Center gym.

Pray and Play – Join us for playtime and daily Mass with other young families. Come for play, prayer, or both – whatever fits your day! If the temperature is below 50°, above 95°, or raining, we’ll meet for Mass only.

2nd Wednesday of each month:

10:00 am — Playtime at The Riverfront Gene Leahy Mall (by the main stage)

11:30 am — Mass at St. Frances Cabrini

4th Wednesday of each month:

5:15 pm — Mass at St. Mary Magdalene

6:00 pm — Playtime at The Riverfront Gene Leahy Mall (by the main stage)

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (LUKE 9:17)

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

Pastor's Letter

Hello Cabrini Family,

No, that is not a typo. Yes, I consider you family. You are more than "family". You are Family. I choose to capitalize the word because, at St. Frances Cabrini, it is more than just a common noun. It is a word that deserves specific and special attention. It defines who we are. It deserves fanfare and confetti falling from the ceiling. It deserves a large, joyous celebration, like a parish picnic or, I don't know, maybe a world famous spaghetti dinner.

Our Cabrini Family is a unique and special gift. In many ways, we are one. We are not just a group of individuals that exist apart from each other in isolation and only gather to praise, worship, and celebrate the Eucharist. We have many opportunities to gather as large and small groups outside of the celebration of Mass and those are priceless gifts. Unlike a traditional family, however, most of us do not live in the same physical dwelling. Our Cabrini Family, the Body of Christ, extends beyond the confines of walls. It surpasses the traditional family unit. It reaches far beyond Alpha, small faith-sharing groups, Cabrini Communities, and parish potluck dinners. Our Cabrini Family relationship fills those minutes, hours, and days between those encounters. As a Family, we share the highs and lows, the joys and sorrows, the successes and failures of those Family members we know deeply and those we have yet to meet. We lift each other up and are intentionally present in each other's lives. We embrace each other and hold one another's hands, literally and even more deeply when we cannot be physically present. One of the most joyous and beautiful parts of this Family's relationship is that it exponentially impacts more lives and hearts than we could ever possibly know. What the Holy Spirit does with this deep Family connection transcends our most vivid imaginations. I believe God constantly drops pebbles in the center of the spiritual body of water located at 10th and William in Omaha, Nebraska. The ripples created each time one of us "pebbles" are dropped, travel further than the eye can see. Those ripples spread love, compassion, hope, joy, faith, change, mercy, and all the other gifts God chooses, as they journey outward. As is the way of our heavenly Father, when those ripples reach their destination, they do the same on their journey back to their source, growing even more along the way.

I have often contemplated why this Family of ours is so special. I was doing so recently when I was deeply impacted by the kindness and solidarity shown to me by my Cabrini Family. The scripture passage that often comes to mind is Matthew 18:20, "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them". Maybe I am a slow learner and you are all saying, "Well, yeah, tell us something we don't know". Yet I continue to ponder. Amidst my contemplation, I was still searching for a more complete answer. I know there is more to it than just gathering. I am aware we gather. We gather often and intentionally. Our gathering skills are some of the best around. But what makes them special?

Then it hits me. The difference is all about what we do when we gather. We pray. We are a prayerful, prayer-filled, and praying Family. Everything we do as a Family includes prayer. Our activities together begin and end with prayer. Many of these same gatherings are filled with prayers spoken aloud throughout, as well as countless, silent prayers that only God can hear. Often times Family members are praying behind the scenes in a very deep and intentional way. For us, prayer is more than words born from our faith and hearts. Prayers are us. We are prayers. We are pray-ers. We actively join our lives together through prayer. Life presents a continuum of experiences and emotions. We navigate the highest of highs, the lowest of lows, and everything in between. With our Family of pray-ers. Because of this gift, we can savor the calm seas and weather the strongest of storms. So, whether you have been a pebble here all your life or you are a brand new Cabrini pebble, know that you are loved, you are not alone, you are welcome, and you are Family.

Prayerfully yours,

Gail Klimek
