Fall Alpha is Starting Soon!

Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the meaning of life and the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly, open, informal environment. It is for everyone! You can’t know what it is like until you’ve experienced it! Alpha not only strengthens your faith, but builds community and forms friendships. The weekly topics are designed to encourage conversation. Are you, or do you know of someone, who is looking for a place to gather with others to talk about the big questions in life—Is there a God? Who is Jesus? What about the Holy Spirit?, etc. Maybe God is an unknown? Maybe new friendships are what is sought? Maybe just gathering with others... Fall Alpha is for all ages and is ready for you! It begins Tuesdays at the Cabrini Parish Center gym from 6-8 pm, starting September 9th through November 18th, plus a Day Away on November 1st. It’s free. It includes a full meal (we do accept free-will donations to help cover food costs). It’s life-changing! To register, contact Annie Wise at amwise@archomaha.org or call the Cabrini Parish Center at (402) 934-7706.

Women’s Faith Sharing Group

Might you be interested in joining a Women’s Faith-Sharing Group with our sister parish, St. Mary Magdalene? A few details... We will gather the second Friday of every month after the 12:05 pm Mass at St. Mary Magdalene (12:30 – 1:30 pm) beginning September 12th. We will be conscientious about time knowing some of you will be joining us during your work day. If you have any interest in participating, please reach out! Because we plan to provide lunch, having a fairly accurate count will be helpful. You can contact me (Ann Lenz) at alenz@archomaha.org. Know that all are welcome to join us!

Guess Who is Coming to Dinner?

Interested in getting to know your fellow parishioners here at St. Frances Cabrini? Sign up for a "Guess Who Is Coming to Dinner Night!" which is a new quarterly offering here at St. Frances Cabrini. Simply scan this QR code or go to our website stcabriniomaha.org, click on the link, and answer some simple questions (i.e. Do you have any food allergies? Can you host? Do you prefer to travel? etc.) and the team will put together groups for you to have dinner with new friends. The host typically will provide the main dish and the guests can bring a side/drinks/dessert, etc. or anything else that is needed. Then, on the weekend of August 22-24, you will meet with your group and enjoy a meal together! There is no commitment other than a shared meal and company. Feel free to go out for ice cream afterwards, have a game night, or just have a dinner filled with conversation, community, and making new friends. The deadline to sign up is Monday, August 11th. Contact Richard Carrillo (RACarrillo83@gmail.com) for more information.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.”
LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

Pastor’s Letter

Dear Friends,

As you look around this weekend, we are obviously celebrating the Santa Lucia Festival. During these days we celebrate the faith of a young woman who gave witness to the faith through her life and her death. Historians estimate that Lucy was either 20 or 21 when she was martyred. Young. Her life was so short. Yet her life serves as a witness to others of how to follow Jesus, how to truly be a disciple.

In just over a month, Pope Leo will canonize two more young people as Saints in the Catholic Church. Like Lucy, they were both quite young when they died but have inspired millions of people through their witness of faith.

Carlo Acutis, born in England to an Italian family, died of leukemia in 2006 at the age of fifteen. He is known for his great devotion to the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Carlo called the Eucharist “my highway to heaven,” and he did all in his power to make the real presence known. His witness inspired his parents to return to practicing the Catholic faith and his Hindu au pair to convert and be baptized. Many of Carlo’s classmates, friends, and family members testified to the Vatican how he brought them closer to God. He is remembered for saying, “People who place themselves before the sun get a tan; people who place themselves before the Eucharist become saints.”

In 2020 he became the first millennial to be beatified by the Catholic Church and is widely popular among young people. Known for his deep faith and digital savvy, he used his computer-coding skills to draw attention to Eucharistic miracles around the world. His miracles’ exhibit, featuring more than one hundred documented miracles involving the Eucharist throughout history, has traveled to thousands of parishes across five continents.

Pier Giorgio Frassati, who died from polio at the age of 24 in 1925, is also beloved by many today for his enthusiastic witness to holiness that reaches “to the heights.” The young man from the Italian city of Turin was an avid mountaineer known for his charitable outreach. At the age of 17, he joined the St. Vincent de Paul Society and dedicated much of his spare time to taking care of the poor, the homeless, and the sick as well as demobilized servicemen returning from World War I. John Paul II, who beatified Frassati in 1990, called him a “man of the eight beatitudes,” describing him as “entirely immersed in the mystery of God and totally dedicated to the constant service of his neighbor.” On the photo of one of his last mountain-climbing trips he wrote “to the heights” which has become a kind of battle cry to those who have followed his example in loving God and neighbor. When he died his parents expected the church to be full of their wealthy and influential friends, but it was packed with the poor people he had helped so much in his brief life.

You will hear more about these two new young saints in the next few weeks. May they, like St. Lucy, inspire you, at any age, to become more like Jesus.

Peace,

Fr. Damian

Haven’t Received a Reply to Your Email?

The parish email and the emails for the parish staff are managed through the IT Department of the Archdiocese of Omaha. They have a very strict spam monitor which prevents dangerous emails from getting through. However, it can also stop your emails from getting through to the parish and the staff. We have heard from a number of parishioners over time saying that we never replied to their email. If that has happened to you, it is most likely because the email was never received but destroyed by the spam filter. Please, try again with your email or give us a phone call at the Office. We try to respond to all questions and requests, but if we do not receive the email, we cannot respond. Thanks for your understanding.
