All Saints Catholic School is only collecting pop/can tabs (any brand). Please drop these off at the school or the Cabrini Parish Office.

Advent at Cabrini

- ◆ Tree lighting next Saturday after the 5 pm Mass. Join us in singing Advent songs, enjoying some hot apple cider and candy canes and lighting up the season.
- ◆ Our theme is Mary carried a promise she couldn't see. We too are called to the same quiet trust.
- ◆ Week One, we encourage you to practice contemplative prayer. Remember that the church is open from 8 am to 5 - 6 pm and you can always stop in for some quiet meditative prayer time.
- ◆ Advent Reconciliation Service and First Confession December 2nd, 7 pm. There will be multiple confessors.
- ◆ Taize prayer, Thursday, December 4th, 8 pm.
- ◆ Monday, December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy day of Obligation. There will be no Vigil Mass on Sunday —Sunday's evening Mass is the Mass of Sunday.
- ◆ We will be collecting for Bethlehem House. They are seeking 13 gallon trash can liners, paper towels and laundry soap. These are items of great need that are rarely donated. You may bring them to the weekend Masses and place them up by the ambo the weekends of December 6 - 7 and 13 - 14.
- ◆ Confirmation, December 14th at 2 pm.

A Neighbor Finds Hope

A Spanish-speaking mother with two young children, in the U.S. legally on a work visa, faced eviction owing $6000, after falling four months behind on rent when her husband was deported.

She called Cabrini's SVdP conference for help. Through the teams efforts, partnering with several non profits, and an incredibly generous landlord who forgave half the rent—she was able to keep her home.

Since this encounter, this brave young mother has secured a job, daycare, food assistance and has begun rebuilding stability for her family. Your donations made this possible.

Thank you for supporting the mission of SVdP at Cabrini!

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

As you read about in the news, the Catholic Bishops of the United States issued a letter to us last week. With our national celebration of Thanksgiving happening this week which recognizes the reality that most of us are children of immigrants, I think it is important for us to read the letter and commit to being a part of the solution.

As pastors, we the bishops of the United States are bound to our people by ties of communion and compassion in Our Lord Jesus Christ. We are disturbed when we see among our people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. We are saddened by the state of contemporary debate and the vilification of immigrants. We are concerned about the conditions in detention centers and the lack of access to pastoral care. We lament that some immigrants in the United States have arbitrarily lost their legal status. We are troubled by threats against the sanctity of houses of worship and the special nature of hospitals and schools. We are grieved when we meet parents who fear being detained when taking their children to school and when we try to console family members who have already been separated from their loved ones.

Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity.

Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation's immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together.

We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks.

The Church's teaching rests on the foundational concern for the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God. As pastors, we look to Sacred Scripture and the example of the Lord Himself, where we find the wisdom of God's compassion. The priority of the Lord, as the Prophets remind us, is for those who are most vulnerable: the widow, the orphan, the poor, and the stranger. In the Lord Jesus, we see the One who became poor for our sake, we see the Good Samaritan who lifts us from the dust, and we see the One who is found in the least of these. The Church's concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord's command to love as He has loved us.

To our immigrant brothers and sisters, we stand with you in your suffering, since, when one member suffers, all suffer. You are not alone!

We note with gratitude that so many of our clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. We urge all people of good will to continue and expand such efforts.

We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

As disciples of the Lord, we remain men and women of hope, and hope does not disappoint!

May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ.

As you gather with family and friends this week to say "thanks" to God by sharing food and drink, please remember all our new immigrants in your prayers.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
