Second Collection This Weekend

There is a second collection at this weekend's Masses for the Black and Indian Missions.

Lent at Cabrini:

A Journey Back Home to the Lord

Lenten Mission: March 22, 23, and 24 at 7 pm in the Church. Danny Leger and Craig Johring share stories about their work with the poor and songs inspired by the poor. Through Hope of the Poor they strive to inspire everyone to encounter Christ and to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

Community Outreach: We will be collecting items for the SVdP Food Bank each week. February 28-March 1st will be Hamburger Helper, Tuna Helper, ketchup and mustard. (Other items will be pasta, salad dressings and small sized detergents).

Faith-Sharing with Fr. Damian: Wednesday Evenings, March 4, 11 and 18 at 7 pm in the Cabrini Center gym. We will be reading "The Return of the Prodigal Son" by Henri J. M. Nouwen.

Praying Together with Hallow: Download and open the Hallow App on your phone. It is free to parishioners of St. Frances Cabrini and St. Mary Magdalene. Join us as we pray together the Lent Pray40: The Return. Prayer requests can also be added directly on the app and you can let people know you have said a prayer for them. Questions? Contact Annie Wise amwise@archomaha.org, Ann Lenz amlenz@archomaha.org or Deacon Doug Lenz dalenz@archomaha.org.

Stations of the Cross: Stations of the Cross will be every Friday through March 27, at 5:30 pm. Good Friday, April 3, Stations will be at 12 noon.

Lenten Reconciliation: Our Lenten Reconciliation/Confessions, with multiple confessors, will be March 26 at 7 pm.

Booklets: A Journey for the Soul booklets with daily readings for inspiration and prayer are available at the church entrances.

Your donations matter!

In January, Cabrini's Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) answered 40 calls for assistance and 8 requests from area churches for financial help for neighbors.

These calls impacted over 110 Neighbors.

Since October, Cabrini's SVdP has provided nearly $43,000 in direct financial aid to neighbors in crisis. This includes eviction and shutoff notices, as well as groceries and clothing for men, women, and children.

This demand is consistently higher than we have experienced in the past, even during Covid.

These are "your" neighbors.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

Pope Leo has given us a challenge for our Lent – to listen. Here is what he wrote:

Lent is a time in which the Church, guided by a sense of maternal care, invites us to place the mystery of God back in the center of our lives, in order to find renewal in our faith and keep our hearts from being consumed by the anxieties and distractions of daily life.

Every path towards conversion begins by allowing the word of God to touch our hearts and welcoming it with a docile spirit. There is a relationship between the word, our acceptance of it and the transformation it brings about. For this reason, the Lenten journey is a welcome opportunity to heed the voice of the Lord and renew our commitment to following Christ, accompanying him on the road to Jerusalem, where the mystery of his passion, death and resurrection will be fulfilled.

This year, I would first like to consider the importance of making room for the word through listening. The willingness to listen is the first way we demonstrate our desire to enter into relationship with someone.

In revealing himself to Moses in the burning bush, God himself teaches us that listening is one of his defining characteristics: "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry." Hearing the cry of the oppressed is the beginning of a story of liberation in which the Lord calls Moses, sending him to open a path of salvation for his children who have been reduced to slavery.

Our God is one who seeks to involve us. Even today he shares with us what is in his heart. Because of this, listening to the word in the liturgy teaches us to listen to the truth of reality. In the midst of the many voices present in our personal lives and in society, Sacred Scripture helps us to recognize and respond to the cry of those who are anguished and suffering. In order to foster this inner openness to listening, we must allow God to teach us how to listen as he does. We must recognize that "the condition of the poor is a cry that, throughout human history, constantly challenges our lives, societies, political and economic systems, and, not least, the Church."

If Lent is a time for listening, fasting is a concrete way to prepare ourselves to receive the word of God. Abstaining from food is an ancient ascetic practice that is essential on the path of conversion. Precisely because it involves the body, fasting makes it easier to recognize what we "hunger" for and what we deem necessary for our sustenance. Moreover, it helps us to identify and order our "appetites," keeping our hunger and thirst for justice alive and freeing us from complacency. Thus, it teaches us to pray and act responsibly towards our neighbor...

In this regard, I would like to invite you to a very practical and frequently unappreciated form of abstinence: that of refraining from words that offend and hurt our neighbor. Let us begin by disarming our language, avoiding harsh words and rash judgement, refraining from slander and speaking ill of those who are not present and cannot defend themselves. Instead, let us strive to measure our words and cultivate kindness and respect in our families, among our friends, at work, on social media, in political debates, in the media and in Christian communities. In this way, words of hatred will give way to words of hope and peace.

He concludes by inviting us to listen, to fast in our language, to cultivate kindness and respect this Lenten work as a parish community. May Pope Leo's challenge for Lent be a source of grace for you.

Peace,

Fr. Damian
