Praying Together with the Hallow App:

It is free to parishioners of St. Frances Cabrini. While there are numerous ways to pray on the App, join us as we pray with the Easter Challenge... He Is Risen.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Beginning Fall 2026, St. Frances Cabrini parish hopes to offer a toddler faith formation program for children who are walking independently through age three called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Children gather weekly in a specially prepared classroom, where they wonder, pray, and grow in their relationship with God in a contemplative, child-led way through simple, hands-on materials. The program is rooted in Scripture, the Church's liturgy, and the educational principles of Maria Montessori. We invite the parish community to help us furnish the classroom for our youngest parishioners. While some items may be purchased, many will be hand crafted or sourced secondhand. We are seeking the support of skilled woodworkers, as well as those who feel called to contribute financially toward materials and supplies. If you are interested in supporting this new ministry, your generosity of time, talent, or treasure is deeply appreciated. For more information on how you can help, please contact Nicole Bourne at nbourne1015@gmail.com (402) 661-9895. If you'd like to support by making a financial contribution, you can simply place your donation in the collection basket at Mass or drop it off at the Cabrini Center (open Monday – Friday, 9 am – 4 pm). Be sure to specify that the money is to be used for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.

Your donations matter!

Thanks to your ongoing support to Cabrini's SVdP Society, we were able to assist our neighbors with over $16,000 in direct financial assistance in the month of March.

While rent and utility support remain critical, your generosity allowed us to go further. We helped neighbors obtain diapers, clothing, car repairs and groceries for families facing food insecurity.

We are truly blessed to serve as the "hands and feet of Christ," representing the heart of Cabrini to our neighbors in need.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends,

One of the most powerful expressions of friendship and mutuality is sharing a meal together. We normally eat with people we like and with people who are like us, but sharing a meal with a person we do not know is a great way to break down social boundaries. One of the great gifts of priesthood is the opportunity to share meals with so many different people, some of them parishioners, others are people who happened to be at the same table as me at a fundraiser or a reception. All of us need to eat and when we break bread together, we share a solidarity, a common humanity.

Meals are also at the heart of the Christian story. Like in today's Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus frequently ate with his followers. Jesus also ate with his adversaries when he dined at the home of Pharisees. Jesus was most often a guest but sometimes he was also the host. In either case, meals were settings where Jesus shared deep insights into the Kingdom and what it meant to be a follower of his.

Jesus taught a Pharisee in Luke 14 that when he throws a party, he should invite those who normally get overlooked or who have little to offer. Jesus says that these folks are the ones that God wants to make sure are included. Jesus is not saying that we should ignore our friends and family, just that we should widen our circle. Every time we gather for Mass, we are sharing a meal with Jesus and with his friends who have joined us. I love the fact that strangers always feel welcomed at Cabrini, that people of all different incomes and races feel they belong here. I love that there are no special places in our churches, no higher priced seats. If you end up sitting where the Deacon and I sit, you must work. When the students from All Saints School gather on Tuesday mornings for Mass at Cabrini, the faces of that crowd represent every part of God's beautiful world.

The Spaghetti Dinner is happening today. Many of you will be working the dinner and this gives you a great chance to meet other parishioners and those who simply want to help us. Others of you will be coming to the dinner to eat and support the school. I encourage all of you to engage those who are sitting near you in a conversation. Get to know their story, enjoy laughter, conversation and care.

As you share those meals, remember today's gospel story. They were eating with Jesus and did not realize it until it was too late. You will be eating with Jesus as well. Don't miss the opportunity to come to know Jesus and our community in a deeper way.

Peace,

Fr. Damian

Guess Who is Coming to Dinner

Interested in getting to know your fellow parishioners here at St. Frances Cabrini? Sign up for a "Guess Who Is Coming to Dinner Night!"; which is a newer quarterly offering here at St. Frances Cabrini. Simply scan this QR code or go to our website stcabriniomaha.org, click on the link, and answer some simple questions (i.e.. Do you have any food allergies? Can you host? Do you prefer to travel? etc.) and the team will put together groups for you to have dinner with new friends. The host typically will provide the main dish and the guests can bring a side/drinks/dessert, etc. or anything else that is needed. Then, on the weekend of May 1-3, you will meet with your group and enjoy a meal together! There is no commitment other than a shared meal and company. Feel free to go out for ice cream afterwards, have a game night, or just have a dinner filled with conversation, community, and making new friends. The deadline to sign up is this Monday, April 20th. Contact Richard Carrillo at RACarrillo83@gmail.com for more information.
